Lies Wrecked On Reef In Halifax Harbor; British Light Cruiser Dauntless

The British light cruiser Dauntless, to-day a wreck in Halifax Harbor, was a visitor in Victoria late in June, 1923. The vessel came as a unit of the British Special Service Squadron, of which the two chief craft were the battlecruisers Hood and Repulse. Other vessels in the squadron were the light cruisers Delhi, Danae and Dragon, sister ships of the Dauntless. The light cruiser Despatch, which is to visit Victoria at the middle of August, is a sister ship.

114 CASES ON POLICE COURT LIST

Vancouver, July 3.—Magistrate Shaw to-day handled what is considered to have been the heaviest list of cases brought before one magistrate in the history of Vancouver when, following the holiday, he faced a docket of 114 cases.

Two hours of work sufficed to cover the list, of which fifty-one were drunkards.

HIGHLIGHTS

The British cruiser Dauntless, which had been a visitor to Victoria late in June, was a wreck in Halifax Harbor. The vessel came as a unit of the British Special Service Squadron, of which the two chief craft were the battlecruisers Hood and Repulse. Other vessels in the squadron were the light cruisers Delhi, Danae and Dragon, sister ships of the Dauntless. The light cruiser Despatch, which is to visit Victoria at the middle of August, is a sister ship.

No official opinion as to the possibility of salvaging the cruiser could be obtained; but experienced mariners at the scene were of the opinion there was little likelihood of the vessel being saved.

Relief steamers and tugs clustering around the wreck to-day apparently were unable to assist the stranded crew.

DEVOTION AT WORK

A large number of the crew of 425 of the Dauntless, removed to the naval dockyard here last night, were brought back to their ship to-day to carry on refloating operations. The officers remained aboard throughout the night.

The Dauntless, to-day presented a terrible appearance. She seemed to be balanced on one pinnacle of rock. Listing to starboard, the hull shook with each wave, some of the seas occasionally sweeping the deck. Her masts tottered, threatening to fall any minute, and small pieces of the wireless aerial fell to the deck from time to time. The movement of the ship caused its bell to clang what seemed its own funeral dirge. The battleship grey was swashed a dirty brown by oil poured on the water to keep the waves from breaking and the only sign of color about the vessel as she lay shivering from the impact of each wave was the white ensign of the British navy astern.

TOMBSTONE ABOARD

In a strange coincidence the Dauntless is carrying a tombstone originally intended to be placed in the Strait of Belle Isle in memory of the cruiser Raleigh and members of its crew who perished there some years ago.

DISASTER IN FOG

It was yesterday afternoon disaster overtook the Dauntless. The cruiser was feeling her way into the harbor through a dense fog when the crew evidently mistook Truro Cup buoy for the one marking the fairway up the harbor.

SAFE CRACKERS LOOT DOWN TOWN JEWELRY STORE

Expert Burglars Get $15,000 in Cash, Diamonds and Watches Taken in Skylight Raid on Premises of J. Rose, Government Street

Burglars entered the Government Street store of J. Rose, jeweler, over the holiday weekend and secured cash, diamonds, jewelry and watches valued at between $12,000 and $15,000, and not insured. The loss was discovered when the store was opened this morning by Samuel Robinson, one of the employees.

The safe of the store had been forced after the knob and combination had been pried off, the skill displayed convincing Chief of Police Fry and Detective-Inspector Harry O'Leary that the burglary is the work of experts.

The visitors overlooked a parcel of valuable jewelry owned by Mrs. Rose, wrapped in brown paper and caught tightly at the back of the most valuable articles. The value of the jewels taken was removed. The selection made convinced Mr. Rose that the burglars have expert knowledge of values. No burglary insurance was carried on the stock.

MUCH TIME GIVEN

The store was closed by Mr. Rose at 9:30 o'clock on Saturday evening, and except for a glance through the front door at 10:30 o'clock last night, was not visited again until it was opened this morning.

The safe is located at the left-hand side of the rear of the store, with a light hanging in front of it. The premises are inspected at intervals by a private night watchman, who saw nothing to arouse his suspicions.

SKYLIGHT ENTRY

Entry was obtained from a skylight over the workshop at the rear. The skylight was raised after two small bows were bent and a slot was cut in the panel of the workshop door, enabling the intruders to survey the store and passing traffic.

Detectives took photographs of fingerprints found on the safe, but report that few clues have been left by the robbers.

The jewelry was removed from the case, which were left in a pile on the floor at the rear of the store.

SUSPENSION OF CITY MEN IS SUGGESTED

Seven in Public Works Department Refused Overtime Work, Says Engineer

The refusal of seven employees of the city public works department to work one hour overtime on a waterworks project on Friday last has led to a request for their suspension, filed by F. M. Preston, city engineer, with the mayor and council to-day.

The visitors overlooked a parcel of valuable jewelry owned by Mrs. Rose, wrapped in brown paper and caught tightly at the back of the most valuable articles. The value of the jewels taken was removed. The selection made convinced Mr. Rose that the burglars have expert knowledge of values. No burglary insurance was carried on the stock.

WITNESS SAYS THREAT MADE

Woman States Move Made to Bar Her Testimony From Vancouver Police Inquiry

Vancouver, July 3.—Declaring she had been threatened by two men after she had announced her decision to give evidence, Miss Christina Shearer caused a sensation at this morning's session of the Vancouver police inquiry.

"I was threatened on Saturday night by two men who said that if I gave evidence against Mayor Taylor my character would be ruined and I would be driven out of town," she declared.

The witness pointed out that the council's mandate against the employment of additional help, with the instruction to make use of city steady employees for all work in hand, led to the transfer of duties effected in this case.

"One hour's work overtime would have completed the cleaning of the waterworks," she said.

The men were loaned from the public works department to that of the waterworks for the purpose, she said, under Smith's direction.

The Misses Jean and Gwyneth Thomas were charming in their harlequin dance and a minute by Miss Adele Plant. Winnifred Moorhouse, Betty Jeanneret and Master M. Drake, was a delightful number.

Ice cream was sold by Miss Cleary, assisted by Miss Barbara Ponton, Miss Bessie Egerton, Miss Hammett, Cynthia Musgrave, Nancy Ponton and Cynthia Johnston, Mrs. Cornwall and the Misses Faith and Helen Cornwall were in charge of "Aunt Sally". Mrs. A. S. G. Musgrave and Miss Mary Swinton were in charge of the clock girls. Mrs. F. Holland drew portrait sketches. Miss Joan Deans and Miss Faith Cornwall did a charming sketch of lavender and Mrs. Tighe as the "Lady With the Hundred Pockets" soon disposed of her wares. Mrs. Alcock told fortunes. Mrs. C. E. Thomas and her two little daughters, Peggy and Jean, were in charge of the pony rides. The Coliseum Market, presided over by Mrs. St. George and Mrs. H. R. Beaver, assisted by Misses Mary Langley and Frances Musgrave, was one of the most picturesque of the stalls.

Mrs. J. H. Gillespie sold pot-pourri and cordial, and Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Parker had charge of the tea. Miss Marian Pitts and Mrs. A. D. Mussett were at the receipt of customs.

The bedspread donated by Mrs. Barracough to the St. Saviour's garden party was won by Mrs. Loftis of Selkirk Avenue whose guess of 937 as the contents of the bean jar was nearest to the actual count of 936.

The Victoria and District Fish and Game Association have lodged an official protest against the closing of Sooke Lake to fly fishermen, in a letter to the City Council asking leave to present arguments in favor of limited fishing under strict supervision. The city has published a general order prohibiting fishing on any of its watered property, and this will be followed by an embargo against hunters when the season opens, it is anticipated. Pollution of water sources is feared by the city, it is stated.

Pretty Wedding at Quamichan

Duncan, July 3.—St. Peter's Church, Quamichan, was the scene of an extremely pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon when the Ven. Archdeacon H. A. Collison assisted by Rev. F. G. Christmas, united in marriage Winifred Grace Calvert, only daughter of Mr. Calvert, Sir Tiger, Mexico, and great-granddaughter of the late Admiral Prevost, and Herbert St. George Gray, sidest son of St. George Gray, and the late Mrs. Gray, Somerton.

The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's training school for nurses, class 1927.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion by girl friends. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "The Voice That Breathes O'er Eden." W. A. Willet at the organ, the bride, on the arm of her uncle, C. H. Wickick, M.P., by whom she was given in marriage, made a lovely picture in a dainty creation of white georgette over crepe de Chine, made with tight bodice, long sleeves, bouffant skirt, composed of silk lace frills edged with silver; on her head a handsome embroidered veil of net and coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and white sweet peas.

Miss Vivian Gray, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a very pretty frock of peach colored georgette and bandeau of French flowers in her hair.

Miss Anna Lomas, the bride's cousin, and Miss Bernice Bittancourt, both a bridesmaids, each looked charming in frocks alike of mauve frilled organdie, picture hats in suite and bouquets of mauve and pink sweet peas, tied with lace bows. Miss Bittancourt is a widow of the bride's.

Little Miss Patry Hutchinson of Victoria made a sweet little flower girl in a picture frock of Nile green silk, lace over crepe de Chine, scalloped skirt with ruffles on which were pink flowers, wreath of the same flowers on her head, and old-fashioned bouquet of baby roses, pink sweet peas and violas, edged with paper frills.

Mr. Harold Calvert, Victoria, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held for immediate relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lomas, Duncan, uncle and aunt of the bride, where most of the numerus presents were on view.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left by motor for a tour of the Island, the bride traveling in a most becoming dress of blue georgette, close fitting white hat and smart wrap. On their return the happy couple will reside in Duncan.

Concluding the ceremony the Bishop of Columbia was again present to award the prizes for scholastic standing.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

FOLLOWING the prize distribution, the bishop spoke briefly, contrasting old-time customs and accomplishments with those of to-day, and concluded by an admonition to the boys to strive for balanced education to fit them mentally and physically for the future. After ringing cheers for the old school, the staff and visitors, the gathering adjourned to the dining-room for refreshments.

The most noticeable feature of the event was the keen interest and the enthusiasm by all present in the awarding of the prizes and the general attitude of the boys presented in an uncertain manner that the success of the school would be in the future what it had been in the past.

NEW CHURCH PLAN URGED

London, July 3.—The Archbishop of Canterbury informed the Church of England Assembly yesterday that no further Prayer Book measure would be presented to Parliament this session. He hoped, however, for the appointment of a strong committee of statesmen and churchmen to recommend whether any readjustment of the existing law would be necessary, whereby the church might formulate its own faith and give expression to its faith in forms of worship.

The bishops will meet in September again to consider the Prayer Book problem.

CANADA HAS PRICELESS HERITAGE

Albert Sullivan, Inspector of High Schools For B.C., Heard in Fine Oration

Closing Address in Dominion Day Ceremony Met With Warm Applause

In a stirring address that closed to prolonged and genuine applause, Albert Sullivan, Inspector of High Schools for British Columbia, delivered the keynote speech in the closing hours of the Dominion Day festivities last evening, from the steps of the Parliament Buildings.

A concourse of people numbering several thousands gathered for the event, and showed their appreciation of the brilliant summary of Canadian achievement told of by Mr. Sullivan.

Speaking of "Our Heritage," Mr. Sullivan said the occasion to be marked was the birthday of Canada. Only a year ago the country had celebrated its Diamond Jubilee of Confederation in festivities which had been marked from coast to coast by the spontaneous outburst of patriotic feeling which had made their success spontaneous. Thought that year was not jubilee, the occasion was one that called for thought and appreciation on the part of all who made their homes in Canada, continued the speaker.

NATIONAL BUILDERS

It was 120 years ago, he said, that Simon Fraser reached the great river Fraser, and 100 and 150 years since Capt. James Cook and Capt. George Vancouver, then an able seaman, made Canadian history in exploration. Capt. Cook was identified also with Eastern Canada for eight years of his life, and had been in association with General Wolfe in the great campaign sent by William Pitt to this country in 1758. It was Gen. Wolfe who, it is believed, gave his life in the closing moments of the conflict.

It was said of Capt. Cook that he did more in two days to make navigation in the St. Lawrence River safe than pioneer navigators before his time had accomplished in 150 years. His charts, soundings and reports led to the opening up of the waterway to an extent not dreamt of before.

Commenting on other phases of the past 120 years, the Prince of Wales had remarked at an address in Victoria, that Canada owed a tribute of appreciation to those hardy pioneers who had defined the meets and bounds of the Dominion, and whose mark preceded that of the Fathers of Confederation, making it possible.

DEBT TO PIONEERS

In this category Canada owed a debt of appreciation to such men as Fraser, Selkirk, Thompson, Cartier, Champlain, Joliet, Marquette, and many more, continued the speaker. They were men who by every conquest or exploration had opened up the country and spread the lines on which the unity of the Dominion was later achieved by the Fathers of Confederation.

The speaker traced the history of the Confederation, telling how from the centralized section in the East, the Dominion had been spread out to include a territory of over 5,000 miles, reaching from Atlantic to Pacific, and from the border to the Arctic Circle.

Canada to-day, continued Mr. Sullivan, stood in the place of a great nation, which through its geographical location was ably fitted for its role of interpreter; that of a liaison officer between the Mother Country and the United States of America. That influence was appreciated and would, he trusted, grow wider yet.

Mr. Sullivan told of the courage and self denial of Great Britain and the Dominions in the war, and of the personal incident of an air raid on London, and the Zeppelin crash on the air and been brought down by a lone pilot in a single seated biplane while millions watched. To the courage and devotion shown in the Great War Canada had contributed a valiant part, and had suffered a heavy toll in the lives of her youth and citizenship, he said.

The war had been the opportunity which had found yet another link of Canada's growing power it had brought this Dominion to the front as a resourceful and courageous nation, and had led to its recognition subsequently as an independent unit of the great Commonwealth of Nations, the British Empire.

CANADA HONORED

Recognition of this status was granted in the signal honor paid the Dominion by its election to a seat in the League of Nations, and by the act of recognition which had been accorded by the non-member nation in the placing of an ambassador from Washington at Ottawa.

"The Fathers of Confederation provided that we must be within the Empire or remain independent," continued Mr. Sullivan. "But they little thought that we should become both, and that we are. We are bound to the Empire by ties lighter than air, but stronger than iron, and that is part of the great heritage that they have made possible for us."

PREMIER'S ADVICE

In regard to her immigration policy Canada had been advised to go slow, and to take time, continued the speaker. "Better an empty house than a poor tenant," had been the words used by one of the greatest Premiers of Great Britain. "Do not hurry. What does it matter? One hundred years or two hundred, time is on our side. Keep the stock you have. Maintain the value, and retain the standard," had been the advice of Premier, the Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, recalled the speaker.

It was 120 years ago, he said, that Simon Fraser reached the great river Fraser, and 100 and 150 years since Capt. James Cook and Capt. George Vancouver, then an able seaman, made Canadian history in exploration. Capt. Two Fine Games

The Phillies put up a gallant battle in both games yesterday, yielding each to extra innings before yielding. Both singles with the bases filled in the fourteenth gave Boston the opener, four to three. Benge went the route for the Phillips. The Braves won the nightcap, five to four in ten innings.

Cubs returned to third place and dropped the Cincinnati Reds in fifth when Art Nelsen relieved his way to an easy 8 to 2 victory over Kolp and Jablonowski. Five hits were all the veteran southpaw would allow. Hack Wilson drove in four Cub runs with the hits.

Babe Ruth's thirty-first homer of the year came to save the New York Yankees from a 3 to 2 reverse from the Washington Senators.

Philadelphia Athletics reduced the Yankees lead to thirteen games by breaking even in a double header with the Boston Red Sox. Lefty Grove had no trouble beating the Sox in the first game, 9 to 2. Rube Walberg failed in the second, and the Athletics went down 7 to 4.

SOX WIN TWO

The Chicago White Sox took a double header from St. Louis 7 to 1 and 9 to 8. Both George Connally and Ted Lyons put games into the winning column.

The Detroit Tigers took many liberties with George Ulmer, pinching and walked off with a 7 to 3 victory over the Indians.

Phillies Put Up Great Battle But Lose Out in Two Extra Inning Games

Yankees Break Even With Athletics; White Sox Take Two From St. Louis

Philadelphia's bid for some other National League berth than the cellar has been staved off by Hornsby, Sisler and Company. The first games of a crucial cellar series yesterday found the Boston Braves twice victorious over the Quakers.

At the close of the game the Braves were four games from the cellar. As a matter of fact a lineup boasting such veterans as Sisler, Hornsby and Sauer had no business flirting so dangerously with the bottom of the standing.

Finally strong pitching seems to explain the Braves' long residence in the depths of the Second Division.

Peden Winner Of Five-mile Championship

Bill "Torchy" Peden, Victoria's premier bicycle rider, who has been selected as a member of the 1928 Canadian Olympic team, added further laurels to his credit last night in Toronto when he captured the five-mile Canadian championship.

Setting the pace all the way, Bill won by inches over Houting and Elder, who finished second and third, respectively. Jim Davies of Vancouver placed fourth in the race.

In the quarter-mile event, which was won by McKay, Bill failed to place.

In a telegram received this morning Bill states:

"Won five-mile Canadian championship. Houting, Elder and Davies finished in order. In quarter-mile I did not place. McKay, Elder, Houting, Southerton. More events concluded to-day. In five-mile event I passed the way and won by inches. I wish to thank my Victoria friends who sent congratulations."

SONS SPLIT WITH ASAHI'S

Vancouver Wins First Inter-city Matches By 164 to 158

(By Times Correspondent)

Vancouver, July 3.—Outstanding features in the first of a series of inter-city cricket matches between the Victoria and District and the Mainland League, played on the historic and beautiful grounds of Brockton Point, in Stanley Park, yesterday at Vancouver were the splendid batting by Reginald Wenman of the Incogs, B. G. Grant of Victoria Club, and Captain A. Matthews of Cowichan Club, the first mentioned making the highest score of the day, namely 59; the bowling of D. Rhodes (Cowichan), and W. L. Rivers (City Club), the fine fielding of E. Copeland of the Auroras, and the brilliant fielding of the Victoria District eleven particularly pointing to Edin Quainton, "Reg" Wenman, F. A. Sparks, A. E. Leggatt and Jack Meredith.

The Sons of Canada, leaders of the local senior baseball league, took even in their two games yesterday with the Asahis, Japanese nine of Vancouver. In the morning fixture the locals took a 17-5 lacing but came back strong in the evening to down the Nipponites 5-4 in a good exhibition.

Bill Holman, star centre fielder of the Sons, was the big factor in his team's victory last night. He crashed out two runs to pass the Canadians a total of four runs.

The Japanese gave a wonderful exhibition of fielding ability and in the morning game they showed the locals how to hunt and run bases.

In the evening game the visitors got away to a one-run lead in the first inning which they increased in the second by another man home. The Japs scored two runs in the third to grab a comfortable lead.

The Sons got into the scores column in the third frame when, after Gandy had crashed out a three-bagger, Holman hit his first homer. The Canadians scored another run in the fourth.

In the fifth the final runs of the game were scored. Falconer Campbell singled and crossed the plate when Bill Holman connected for another circuit swat to win the ball game.

Tanaka, one-handed batter, who worked for the Asahis, was nicked for six hits while Cann, who twirled for the Sons, passed seven safeties.

VICTORIA'S INNINGS
Making a total of eighteen errors the Sons proved no match for the Japanese in the morning fixture and were forced to admit defeat by a 17-5 count.

All the trouble started in the seventh inning when the visitors started to beat the ball around over the infield. Fast as deer the Nipponites hit out hits that looked like sure outs. Kato, third baseman for the Asahis, poled out a home run in the seventh.

Kerr pitched for the Sons and allowed ten hits while the Sons gathered in six hits off Nishi's offerings.

TENNIS TALKS

Lott Discusses Speed, Spin

By GEORGE M. LOTT JR.

Speed is the winning game in this era of lawn tennis and is more or less of a requirement. There is a difference between speed and pace, though both are effective and have practically the same results.

Some players find it necessary, in order to keep their shots in the court, to put a great deal of spin on the ball. The more spin on the ball the less speed is obtained, but that does not mean necessarily the less pace. There are two kinds of spin, namely, topspin and the underspin.

The danger with the flat drive is that it is apt to lose control, but there is no question that the flat drive carries the most pace with the least amount of effort. By pace is meant a shooting of the ball after it hits the ground on the other side of the net. The ball seems to gather speed after it hits the ground.

The top-spin drive carries a great deal more pace than the undercut ball because the top-spin ball shoots forward at the moment of impact with the ground while the undercut ball slows up and seems to float along. On a heavy court the undercut shot is generally the more effective and also easier to hit.

Variation changes the pace and confuses the other player as to just what kind of a bounce to expect next. Each type is effective in its place. The slow driving shot is particularly effective against a fast player when it becomes an effort for him to make his shots. The topspin is best used when you want to put the ball out of reach of your opponent.

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)
New York, July 3.—Reaction encountered and completed. Yesterday's market encountered a reaction which was well within normal bounds when call money was advanced to ten per cent, a rate which has not been witnessed since war panic times in 1920. The statement was made here Saturday that the market leaders had accomplished about, as much as they might be expected to accomplish for the moment, and were due to either show up or react, while other issues were brought into line. Since the market always looks worse when the leaders are reacting, yesterday's market at times looked bad, but it was noticeable that throughout the list and including the leaders, which had staged rather radical advances in the past week, a clearly defined line of support, money rate or no money rate, was encountered well above any support line. There has been evidence since the June reaction was encountered and completed.

There was some liquidation of July by weak interests who had taken delivery, but the pressure was not heavy, and the offerings were well taken. The cash market was dull, but there was a good demand for the lower grades, which are scarce, and spread on these were from  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  cents higher and trade volume was small. The news of the holiday, while Winnipeg market closed was generally bullish. Liverpool making sharp advances, with reports that Russia was buying foreign wheats on a broad scale. This has not been confirmed.

The weather in the southwest is now reported clear with the forecast favorable. Harvesting operations will soon be in full swing in Kansas and other states where it has been delayed by continuous rains. Good general showers were received in Manitoba and Saskatchewan over the holiday, which will be beneficial following the week of warm weather.

The crop situation in western Canada is said to be almost perfect, a record yield in marketing. World shipments last week totalled 13,332,000 bushels only 6,585,000 clearing from North America. On passage supplies decreased 2,496,000 and how while still fair for this season, are slightly under last year. July first reports by American crop experts showed some improvements from a month ago and the United States will still have a lot of wheat to export this season. Liverpool closed  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 2% lower during the week.

Courier grain—Outside of a little domestic demand for cash barley, there was very little doing in the coarse grains to-day. The wheat market pressure was inclined to be weak. Oats closed  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 2% lower, barley  $\frac{1}{2}$  higher to  $\frac{1}{2}$  lower and rye  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 1% lower.

Scattered liquidation was again in evidence with the demand very slow. Closing prices 2% to 1% lower. No feature.

at $220,000. Spring 350,000,000, and the Canadian provinces at 455,000,000 bushels.

Crop reports from the American and Canadian northwest generally favorable. Export demand at the seaboard was "only fair" with some Manitoba crop. Yesterday's reaction has made Atlantic Refry again available below 140 and American Republics below 65.

Since December acted heavy due to favorable crop reports and ideal weather over the best. Market reacted to the crop at 3,058,000,000. Forecast for generally fair and continued warm weather. We still favor sales of corn.

Book of KnowledgeSketches by Bessie,
Synopsis by Braucher.KINGS OF THE AIR

Eagles are the true kings of the air—the most majestic creatures that fly. The eagle that is shown on American currency is listed among the vultures, buzzards and other day birds of prey, and is a formidable ranger over land and lake. The birds live to a great age, perhaps a century. Here is pictured the Bald Eagle, national emblem of the United States.

By N.Y.A. Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1923-28.

It is an interesting sight to watch a Bald Eagle pursuing an Osprey and compelling the Osprey to drop his catch of fish.

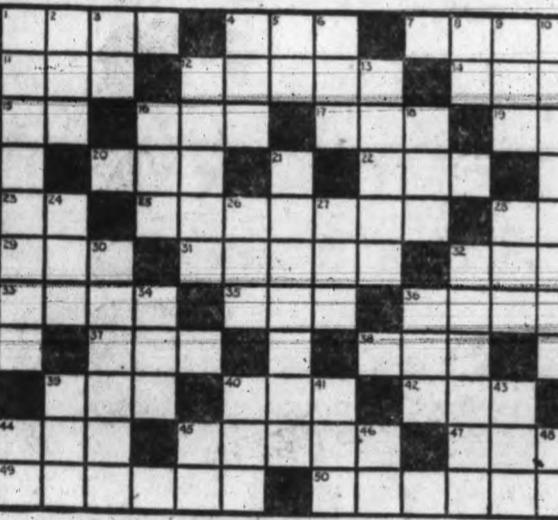

Here is the white-tailed Sea Eagle that builds its nest on craggy peaks, remote from the haunts of man.

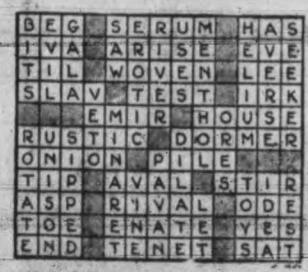

Shepherds tell stories of the experiences of lambs with these birds. But in general it is birds of the shore and sea that these giants snap up. The Sea Eagle has an eye like a telescope which sees into the mysteries of the deep; at the sight of the prize he hurls himself into the water and brings up a salmon or mackerel.

To-morrow's Horoscope

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1928.
Good and evil influences contend to-day, according to astrology, which reads in the stars conflicting messages. There is a benevolent aspect that presages success for public gatherings and much enjoyment for the people. Theatres should benefit and music is especially well directed while this rule prevails.

There is an auspicious sign for public speakers to-day, and all who seek public notice should profit by the opportunities offered under this direction of the stars.

Dissatisfaction among certain workers is indicated, but industry is subject to a favorable planetary government. Women are fortunate under this sway which makes for romance as well as lasting friendships.

There is a menacing rule for night entertainments or late celebrations of the national holiday.

The position of Uranus is read as foretelling an increase of military equipment in Europe. An engagement to marry between a foreign prince and princess will awaken world interest in its potentialities.

South America now comes under a planetary government that promises better understanding of the United States.

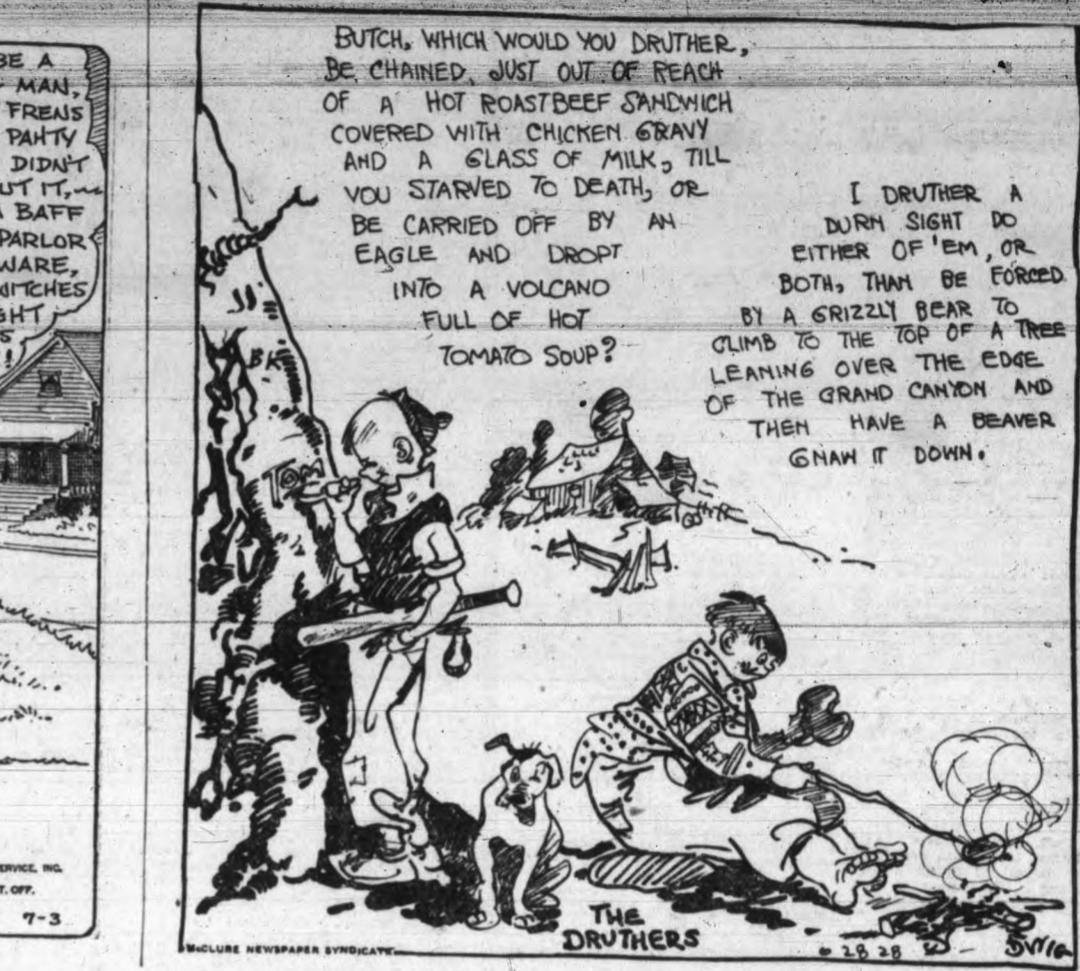

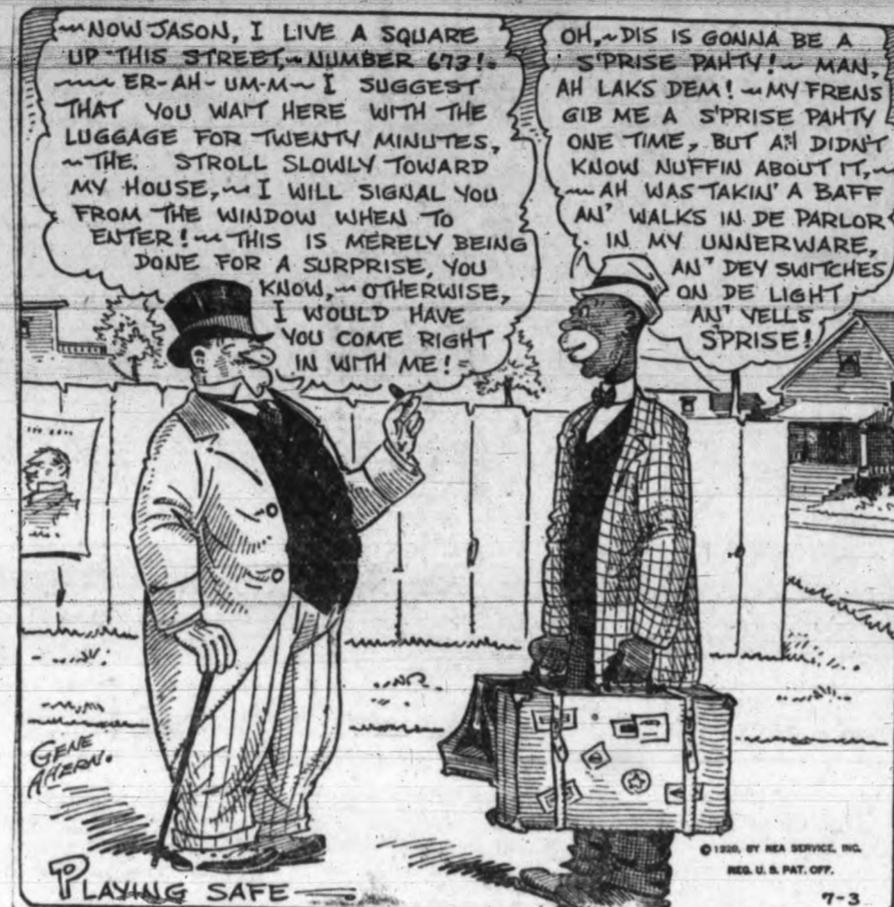

Persons whose birthday it is probably will have a year of much progress and prosperity.

Children born on this day may meet sudden success after periods of disappointment. Many talented persons are born under this sign.

B.C. APPLE CROP TO BE HEAVIER

Ottawa, July 3.—British Columbia apple growers estimate an apple crop in excess of last year. The Department of Agriculture report says: In spite of adverse weather conditions Ontario is also expecting a heavier crop. A fifty per cent increase is anticipated in Quebec; New Brunswick a heavier crop, while with favorable conditions Nova Scotia is expecting a ten per cent increase. Last year the apple crop amounted to 2,810,600 barrels valued at $10,416,035.

There has been an excellent showing of peach blossom in British Columbia and Ontario, and prospects are good for a heavier crop than marketed last year, which amounted to 347,590 bushels valued at $1,051,705.

Present indications point to an increase in the cherry, plum, prune and apricot crop. The production was valued at $1,000,000 last year, while this year it was cherries 216,300 bushels $784,000; plums and prunes 263,200 bushels, $473,780; and apricots 18,000 bushels, $67,250.

Raspberries in British Columbia will about equal the crop of 1927, while Winer killing in Ontario will reduce the crop by thirty to fifty per cent.

Last year's figures for the whole country were 10,946,200 quarts valued at $1,516,145.

These estimates are based on reports received by the Dominion Fruit Commissioner.

Acid Stomach

Excess acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes the acid. The best neutralizer is Phillips' Milk and Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians for 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk and Magnesia neutralizes instantly all acids—any drugstore.

B.C. PHOSPHATES WILL FERTILIZE PRAIRIE FARMS

Consolidated Secures Huge Deposits to Make New Fertilizer

Waste Products at Trail to Be Used in Process

Looking forward to the day when British Columbia will supply Canada's western prairie grain belt with the fertilizer necessary to maintain the present richness of its soil, the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company has moved here to secure permanent rights to vast phosphate deposits in the Fernie district. The company, it was announced, is acquiring leases to cover forty square miles of territory on the Elk River, not far from Fernie, where phosphate can be recovered in enormous quantities and manufactured into fertilizer.

IS BIG SCHEME

Behind this move is a scheme of national importance, in effect the restocking of Canada's richest agricultural areas which cannot go on producing grain year after year without some form of fertilizer in quantities not used anywhere in the world yet. In securing control of deposits from which this fertilizer can be manufactured, the consolidated is looking to the day when the prairie farmer will have to renew his crop with some economic form of fertilizer not obtainable on a big scale at present.

WILL SAVE WASTE

Manufacture of fertilizer from the phosphate waste products of the mining district is another of the extraordinary chemical processes which have made the company's Trail smelter one of the wonders of the mining world. In effect, it is proposed to use a product now wasted at Trail to turn the phosphates into a substance which will burn up when it becomes exhausted from continual production of grain. This waste by-product is sulphuric acid, used in metallurgical work in the smelter. Combined with the phosphates of the Fernie district it makes a substance extremely valuable as a fertilizer.

EXPERIMENTAL SHIPMENT

An experimental shipment of the fertilizer already has been made to the mining companies so that the substance may be tested under actual mining conditions. This material was prepared at Trail, but it is presumed that when the project is established on a permanent basis a plan to manufacture it will be established near the phosphate deposits. Then only the sulphuric acid will have to be shipped from the smelter to the manufacturing centre, and the haulage to the prairies through the Crow's Nest Pass would be relatively short.

ETERNAL CITY LECTURE THEME

Pictures of Rome Will Illustrate Prof. Everson's Talk

"Rome, the Eternal City in the Days of the Caesars," will be the subject of a stereopticon lecture to be given by Prof. Charles T. Everson to-night at the Empire Auditorium, Pandosy street, Colver street. Prof. Everson lived seven years in Rome and will describe the glory of ancient Rome, while 125 hand-colored views will be projected upon the screen of the Tarpeian Rock, from which the political criminals of Rome were sent down to death in gladiatorial contests, where men fought with men and beasts, the very spot where Mark Anthony gave the funeral oration over the dead body of Julius Caesar, the light of the affairs of Rome burning perpetually and who were buried alive if the light went out; a collection of Roman Christians martyrs who wrote the history of early Christianity by their blood upon the yellow sands of the arenas of Rome; the monster Nero, who fiddled while Rome burned, and his order to tear the Christians and burn them alive, together with many other views.

Preceding the lecture there will be a special music concert lasting one-half hour and beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Crime Expert To Give Demonstration At Royal Victoria

A. Maximilien Langsner, M.L.L.C. (known all over the world) who recently performed some amazing tests with the Provincial Police in Victoria, has accepted the invitation of the Royal Victoria to give a demonstration to the public on Wednesday evening.

The "Lion and the Mouse" is a powerful drama, dealing with the ways and means by which the daughter of a deceased judge, moves the rich man who has caused his ruin—to the point of trying his father and offering her him in marriage. Lions will be the chief attraction, and the "It" girl, Clara Bow, the Cosmopolitan Trio, a novelty trio of singers and dancers, along with Gladys Hershberger, a soloist, in a song selection. Harold Beechler, the magician, will present a character sketch and the overture will be a feature of the concert under the baton of Al Prescott.

Al Francis gives a masterly performance as the unfortunate judge. William Collier Jr. is "list right" as the young lover.

Stage attractions at the Capitol for this week include Miss Orlie McLaughlin, former star of "Our Gang." Our Gang, which will offer dances of Gilda Gray, Mac Murray and the "It" girl, Clara Bow. The Cosmopolitan Trio will offer dancing and singing.
